REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN CONGRESS WHITTLED TO ALMOST NOTHING

Cut From 24 to 10 in Senate and Probably Smaller Margin in House—Democrats Gain 15 Seats in New York State.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns today from closely contested territory greatly emphasized the magnitude of the Democratic gains made in Tuesday's election.

On the basis of returns received up to 10:45 o'clock today, it is now fairly certain that the Republican majority in the next senate will be reduced to 12 and possibly to 10, as compared with the present majority of 24.

Republican senatorial defeats suffered in New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, Indiana, and probably in North Dakota, encompassed this result.

The Democrats lost only two of their sitting senators—Hitchcock in Nebraska and Pomeroy in Ohio.

In the house of representatives the present overwhelming Republican majority of 163 has been cut almost to the vanishing point and it may conceivably be controlled by either party by a few votes. The belief prevailed however, that in the final tabulations the Republicans will have maintained control by a small margin. Returns from congressional districts in the west have been slow coming in.

The magnitude of the Democratic gains however, may be judged from returns in the populous centers of the country which went overwhelmingly Republican two years ago.

On the face of returns this forenoon, the Democrats have gained 15 seats in New York, making 24 Democrats from New York in the next house as against 9 in the present one; they have gained seven seats in New Jersey; 8 in Pennsylvania; 12 in Missouri; 2 in Kansas; 3 in Tennessee; 4 in West Virginia; 5 in Ohio; 5 in Indiana; 4 in Oklahoma, and a scattering from other states.

New York, Nov. 8.—The political pendulum that two years ago carried the Republican party into overwhelming control of the national government and many state governments, has plunged backward with a mighty surge and put many Democrats into power once more.

A notable series of Democratic gains, marked up by voters in nearly every state yesterday, has fallen short of ousting the Republicans from control of congress, however, and according to available returns this morning, the Republicans will continue in control of both branches of congress, although by greatly reduced majorities.

The Democrats have gained three, possibly four seats in the United States senate, cutting the Republican majority to 18 or 19, and in the house of representatives the Republican majority has been cut about to the vanishing point. Returns this morning indicated the G. O. C. control of the lower house will be not more than 20 seats at the outside and it may be wiped out altogether. Returns from many districts in the west are still missing.

In the great populous states like New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, the Democrats picked up congressional seats in impressive fashion. The solid Republican delegations in congress from Indiana and Ohio were eaten into heavily by the Democrats, while in Missouri, where there are now 14 Republicans and only 2 Democrats, it appeared this morning that the situation would be virtually reversed.

New York and New Jersey were great Beacon lights of Democratic success in the east. In New York, the voters turned out Governor Nathan L. Miller and Senator William M. Calder, Republicans, and put in Alfred E. Smith and Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Democrats, by the greatest pluralities ever recorded in a New York state election.

In New Jersey they turned down former Governor Runyon and Senator Frelinghuysen and put in George F. Silzer and Governor Edward J. Edwards, Democrats, as governor and senator respectively, by impressive majorities. Edwards and Silzer are openly and militantly wet.

Even in conservative New England, the results afforded rejoicing for the Democrats and small joy for the Republicans.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge has barely managed to squeeze his way to re-election in Massachusetts over Col. William A. Gaston, Democrat. Returns this morning place Lodge's estimated plurality at less than five thousand. Gaston has not been considered over a menace to Lodge by the Republicans and his show of strength amazed leaders in both parties.

In Rhode Island, Senator Peter G. Gerry, Democrat, has been re-elected over R. Livingston Beechman in what was generally regarded as a "silk stocking" senatorial fight.

Westward from the Alleghenies, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Missouri, stood forth as marking up notable Democratic gains.

Ohio, the home state of President Harding, where the national administration was more an issue than perhaps in any other state, apparently has elected a Democratic governor and some eight or ten Democratic congressmen, but also a Republican senator. Returns this morning indicated that Representative Simeon Fess, Republican, to the

SMITH CARRIES HIS ENTIRE TICKET TO RECORD-SMASHING VICTORY

His Plurality About 400,000, With Ticket Far Behind But Safely Elected—Democrats Will Control Legislature—Miller Philosophical.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 8.—Final returns from outlying districts emphasized today the literally smashing victory won by Alfred E. Smith, and the entire state Democratic ticket in yesterday's election.

The Democrats will control the next state senate by a majority of one vote. The general assembly was barely won by the Republicans by the same slim majority of one vote.

For all practical purposes, however, Gov. Smith will control both houses of the legislature.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Democrats returned triumphantly to the State House and executive offices at Albany on the crest of the most smashing victory ever won by any party in New York state.

Al Smith's plurality over Governor Nathan L. Miller, was generally estimated this morning by both Republicans and Democratic sources to be in excess of 400,000 and his strength was so great that he dragged into office with him his entire state ticket, although by pluralities generally lower than his own.

The legislature, according to returns available this morning, remains Republican, although by the scantiest of margins. Complete returns may yet throw the state senate to the Democrats. The Assembly appeared safely Republican, but tabulations saw the senate as 25 to 23, with the senatorship contest in the 36th district, embracing Jefferson and Oswego counties, in doubt.

The defeat of Gov. Miller was literally a rout. Two years ago, Gov. Miller came down to the Bronx county line with a smashing plurality of 394,000, enough to offset Smith's city superiority, and provide a safe margin. Tuesday, Gov. Miller came down to the Bronx with only 80,000 to combat Smith's unprecedented city plurality of around 475,000.

Smith's ticket ran considerably behind him both upstate and downstate, but was not really in danger.

of defeat at any time. Charles P. Steinmetz, the Schenectady electrical wizard, running for state engineer on the Socialist ticket, made a really good showing for he drew thousands of Republican and Democratic votes.

The victory of Dr. Royal S. Copeland over Senator William M. Calder, was not of Smith proportions but was nevertheless impressive. Copeland's showing upstate surprised even Democratic leaders.

The great upstate centers which had been confidently expected by Republican managers to give Miller a commanding lead with which to come down to the Bronx, utterly failed the governor.

Smith carried Albany by about 12,000, Amsterdam by nearly 2,000; Auburn by nearly 2,000; Binghamton by 1,500; Buffalo by 16,000; Poughkeepsie by 1,000; Rochester by 5,000; Schenectady by 5,000; Syracuse by 6,000; Troy by 10,000 and Utica by 5,000.

Elmira and Jamestown were carried by Governor Miller by small pluralities of around 2,000.

Gov. Miller accepted his defeat philosophically and without apparent resentment. He merely wired Gov. Smith that the people of New York had tried the two brands of government, Miller's and Smith's, and apparently favored the latter and he wished his successor luck.

The governor announced at Albany that he would lay down the burden of office on January 1, without a trace of regret. He expects to take a short vacation in the south, starting in a few weeks.

Governor Smith acknowledged Miller's telegram with "sincere thanks."

A great deal of ticket-scratching was in evidence on both sides.

SLIMMER LINES FOR NEW COATS

Autumn Street Garments Are Made Very Straight and Are of Slender Appearance.

COATLIKE FROCK IN DEMAND

Type of Costume Dear to the Heart of French Woman Gives Wearer
Trim, Well-Dressed Appearance.

The clothes for each new season, when shown for the first time, naturally give rise to a great deal of discussion of fashions. They seem to turn things topsy-turvy in the realm of fashion for a few weeks at least. There is usually a universal impression that there are to be radical changes in fashions—an impression, observes a fashion writer in the New York Tribune, which is made by the multitude of ideas set adrift to be picked up by any buyer who fancies any one of them.

In very few weeks, however, the best that has been shown in dress is adopted. We have had any dress-

Wrap of Gold and Red Cloth With Embroidery on Collar.

He changes in fashions or anything very bizarre worn in a number of years.

Wraps of various sorts are claiming a great deal of attention at the present time. The one-piece dress, so universally worn, has made the separate coat very important. It took coat-makers some time to realize the harvest in store for them through the popularity of the one-piece dress. During the years that it has been the backbone of every woman's wardrobe the two-piece suit has periodically been thrust before the public in some guise in the hope that it would win its old place in popular favor.

Slimmer Outline.
Various measures of success rewarded those who backed these movements. Women always like a change, and each time the tailored suit has been forced to the foreground they have eagerly ordered it, but the demand has quickly died out again.

One of the most definite tendencies in street coats for this autumn is toward slimmer lines. While they cannot be described as fitted coats, they are more on the lines of the chemise frock—that is, very straight and of slender appearance. In fact, many of them look almost like dresses. Sleeves of street coats are diminishing in size thus adding to the slimmness of the garment.

Velours de laine is still one of the favorite materials for daytime coats. A model in this fabric and typical of the latest developments in coats is trimmed with fine tucks, a type of trimming which seems to increase in popularity daily. An additional bit of trimming is added by the slashed panels at either side, which are bound with braid. In colors, various shades of brown and black are favored.

Fancy beige and black cloth are used for another model. The background of the cloth is beige repp, the stripe being in the form of a black cord which looks almost like an applied trimming of fine black braid.

Coatlike Frocks
Coatlike frocks give their wearers a trim, well-dressed appearance, and for this reason they should be exceedingly popular. This type of costume for years has been dear to the smartly dressed French woman, who long has recognized its desirable qualities. It took the American woman some time to adopt it, for she ever has been a staunch adherent of the tailored suit for street wear, but each season for the last few years has seen a further departure from the suit for women who have passed the flapper age. They have come to see that one is really never well dressed in a blouse and skirt after removing the jacket of a suit, and it is not possible to wear the suit jacket both indoors and out. To do so interferes with one's comfort.

Fur is very important as a trimming this season. Such furs as rabbit and squirrel are being dyed to exactly match cloths. These will prove formidable rivals to the more costly pelts.

Many of the new fur collars on cloth coats are of the standing variety, flaring from the neckline. The same type of collar is used on evening wraps. It may be made entirely of fur or of fabric edged with fur, such as monkey skin. There is no abatement in the demand for monkey fur. This demand makes one wonder where all the monkey fur is to come from, for the fact is well known that this prolonged vogue has threatened the extermination of the monkey.

Autumn Evening Wraps.
While daytime wraps are slender, those for evening wear are voluminous. In the matter of color, too, the pendulum swings fur in the opposite direction. The shades for evening are as vivid as those for daytime are subdued.

In materials velvets and metallic brocades lead. Plain metallic cloths woven on a background of color are most effective. They are used either alone or with handsome fur trimmings or in combination with velvet.

The evening wraps being prepared for this winter are extremely magnificent in fabric, in embroidery and fur trimmings. Linings are exceedingly beautiful. Often a velvet brocaded chiffon is used to veil a lining of silk. Old-fashioned shirring is used profusely on evening wraps. It is seen in both vertical and horizontal lines. This is a favorite method of ornamenting upstanding collars which are edged with fur.

Wrap to Match Each Gown.
The amount of embroidery being used on fall clothes indicates that those making the models for the new season firmly believe that women have not tired of this way of ornamenting apparel—and, after all, they are perfectly justified in this supposition, for it is one of the oldest methods of trimming and one of which the feminine world apparently has never become weary.

Black velvet wraps lined with white ermine or rabbit are among the luxurious models for this winter. Designers consider it well worth their while to spend a great deal of their valuable time on the evening wrap. For many seasons, while it was more or less of a costly affair, it was quite uninteresting.

Few changes were made in it from season to season, the reason for this being that most women bought only one evening wrap during the season, or perhaps one in two or three seasons. Now those who have only one evening wrap for the entire winter are very old-fashioned, indeed. Smart women who can possibly afford it have an evening wrap to match or harmonize with each dress.

An interesting fashion note is the making of evening bags, purses or vanity cases to match each wrap. This is a very clever idea in which dressmakers and bag makers have united.

Gorgeous Fabrics.
Gorgeous fabrics will hold the center of the fashion stage during the coming autumn. At the beginning of every new season strenuous efforts are made to divert attention from the previous season's styles, but since dressmakers realize that it is next to impossible to compel the present-day woman to adopt a new silhouette they have turned their attention toward fabrics and trimmings.

There is something so pre-eminently youthful about the simple, straight-line dress, which has become almost a uniform, that it is difficult to persuade women to accept anything else, although dresses with a bouffant tendency are claiming considerable attention for evening wear. With a little change in silhouette it is logical that fabrics and trimmings should become more interesting.

Love of Country Natural.
There is a necessity that all men should love their country; he that professes the contrary may be delighted with his words, but his heart is still there.—Ben Jonson.

To Clean Leather.
The leather on furniture should be rubbed over occasionally with a cloth slightly dampened with oil or with a good leather polish.

ALL ACCORDING TO NATURE

Animals and Birds Universally Obey
Law Seamingly Imprinted by a Supreme Intelligence.

Strange things happen in the jungle. Carverth Wells, explorer and lecturer, tells about the hornbills, long-tailed birds so big they often measure five feet from tail tip to beak. In Malay jungles Wells saw the male hornbill during the mating season drive the female into a hollow tree, then wall up the opening with mud. This protects Mamma Hornbill against enemies. She stays in her jail until eggs are laid and hatched. Then Pa lets her out. Meantime he has fed her through a small opening left in the mud. He gathers the food by using his saw-toothed beak to cut fruit and flowers from their stalks. Maybe that's where man originally got his idea for the saw, now used to cut boards.

Not necessary to go as far as Malaysia. In Canada, when timber wolves maul Mrs. Wolf hunts a cavern with a roof that slopes downward to meet the floor in a V-shape. She pushes her young far back in the V. This is to keep Pa Wolf from eating his family. Mother Wolf can get at the babies easily, with her small body. Pa Wolf, having a larger body, cannot wedge himself in far enough to reach them. Wise nature that makes Mother Wolf smaller than pa. Wise Mother Wolf that knows, in advance, her husband's appetite and how to haffle it.

Seals swim north to rookeries or breeding grounds. The male seals go first, house hunting. After they have located good homes, near plentiful food supply, messengers swim back to summon the cow seals.

In the baby ward of a hospital you see infants, each in his own bed, all very orderly. Mother Bee does the same, builds an apartment house of cells with wax walls. In each cell one egg is laid and one individual raised. Wasps have the same system, manufacturing in their bodies the paper with which they make the cells. Ants build their nurseries in the earth or rotted trees, with many bedrooms, also corridors through which Mother Ant dashes about, peering into each room to see that baby is O. K., then on to the next.

You cannot explain these peculiar things in nature, any more than you can explain why a male peacock always has four wives, never more, never less. All forms of life seem to revolve around the function of having children. Considering the intricacies and far-reachingness of what we call nature, it is bewildering how any man can fail to believe that a Supreme Intelligence is behind it all.

To Explore the Sahara.

Under Rothschild auspices, a zoological expedition, composed of one Englishman and one Scotchman, is forcing its way deep into the heart of the Sahara desert, a region which is practically unmapped zoologically, the Living Age states.

At its head is Capt. Angus Buchanan, a zoological explorer of great skill and experience. The expedition has been sent to find and collect birds, animals and plants wherever it is able to penetrate, to look for any traces of Roman or other classical civilization in the central Sahara, and to secure camera and motion-picture records of the habits, customs and general mode of life of the inhabitants of the country.

The expedition, with its camel caravan, is now heading for the desert north of Nigeria. Communications are necessarily very irregular, for there are only five main roads across the desert, some of which have never yet been traveled by Europeans. Once Captain Buchanan leaves the French post of Agades there may be no news from him for months.

Copper and Health.

The use of copper sulphate for the disinfection of reservoirs and the destruction of algae and noxious germs in water has led to much discussion of the old idea that copper is dangerous to health. An official of the Department of Agriculture maintains that a change has come over scientific opinion on this subject. Strange as it may seem, he says, there is not an authentic case of copper poisoning on record, either in this country or abroad, and he adds that toxicologists and physiologists who have sufficiently studied the subject agree that copper, in the amount used for purification of water, is harmless. On account of the many defects in the practical use of filtration plants, he regards purification of water supplies by copper as a preferable method, or, at least, as a safe auxiliary.—Washington Star.

American Rainfall.

A vivid picture of the amount of rain that falls upon the United States is given by a Washington scientist. It is equivalent to ten Mississippi rivers flowing constantly. Otherwise measured, it equals 30 inches of water for the entire area, making a total volume of 152,000,000,000 cubic feet. But this is only half the amount that would be necessary to maintain the full productivity of the soil of the whole country. One-third of this amount runs down to the sea in rivers. The problem for engineers to solve is the utilization to the utmost of the supply that nature furnishes.—Exchange.

Lake Frozes in Japan.

Asahikawa and districts in Hokkaido, Japan, suffered an unusual drop of temperature on June 24, 1922, all the lakes and streams freezing. Such an experience at that time of the year has only been recorded once before in those localities. That was 35 years ago when the rivers froze on July 2. Serious damage was done to crops.

The Northwest Passage.

The Northwest passage is a passage for ships from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean by the northern coasts of the American continent, long sought for. Sir Robert McClure in his expedition of 1850-1854 was the first to achieve the passage, although part of the journey was made on ice.

Cucumbers Long Enjoyed.

Cucumbers were known to the ancients, being mentioned by Virgil and other writers. They were first cultivated in England in 1533, having been introduced from Holland.

Works Well Both Places.

It is said the Swiss model was invented centuries ago for the purpose of calling cows into the stable, but the fact that it would call people into a Chautauque tent wasn't discovered until a few years ago.

ULTIMATUM SENT TO TURKS

Allies Tell Them to Cease Demands or Force Will Be Used in Constantinople.

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, Nov. 8.—The Allied high commissioners at Constantinople have united in a stern warning—a virtual ultimatum—to the Turkish Nationalists, threatening immediate martial law, enforced by both troops and warships unless the Turkish demands are withdrawn, according to advices received at the foreign office at noon.

Sultan Mohammed VI is reported to have disappeared from his Constantinople palace and is believed to have taken refuge on a British warship in the Dardanelles.

An unconfirmed report from Constantinople early in the day said that the Turks were pressing their demands with threats and had given the Allies 24 hours in which to hand over the administration and four days in which to evacuate Constantinople. This report was received before the foreign office was advised of the warning given by the Allied high commissioners to the Turks.

The Allies' warning at Constantinople was contained in a note handed to Hamid Bey, representative of Kemal Pasha. The document characterized the Turkish demands as preposterous and warned that the terms of the Mudania armistice pact must be observed to the letter.

The British cabinet has given wide discretionary powers to General Sir Charles Harrington, the British commander in Turkey and is backing him up. It is believed that the ultimatum presented by the Allies to the Turks will cause the latter to calm down. Allied warships are patrolling the straits.

The British mixed court and the international sanitary commission at Constantinople which the Turks were reported to have closed, are still functioning.

The situation at Chanak, on the Dardanelles, is less serious than it was pictured yesterday. The Turks who pressed against the British military lines, were not acting under military orders but upon their own responsibility.

An Athens despatch said that M. Zaimis, who was appointed premier of the coalition Greek cabinet on September 23, has arrived at Athens; that the Greek cabinet has resigned, but will be reelected under a new oath of office. There is no confirmation of the Greek accusation that the Turks burned a concentration camp at Caesarea, killing many Greek prisoners and Christians.

WOODROW WILSON IS GRATIFIED AT RESULT

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Nov. 8.—Woodrow Wilson, former president and leader of Democracy, was "deeply gratified" by the decision of the American people at the polls Tuesday, it was stated at his S. street home.

The former president, although not yet recovered from his long illness, showed a "great interest" in the election returns which flowed into his home all night long. Early today he was engaged in reading hundreds of telegrams from Democratic leaders all over the country who telegraphed their rejoicing.

DEMOCRATS FROM NEW MEXICO IN CONGRESS

By Telegram to The Freeman. Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Adelina Otter-Warren was defeated in her campaign for New Mexico's only seat in the house, by John Morrow, Democrat, according to incomplete returns today. Indications are that Senator A. A. Jones, Democrat, has been re-elected.

Reformation Anniversary.

The anniversary of Reformation will be observed at the Spring Street Lutheran Church next Sunday. The morning service will be in German and the evening service in English. The Lord's Supper will be administered at both services. Announcement for Holy Communion should be made on Thursday or Friday at the parsonage. Frazier's Election Claimed.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8.—With no strongly non-partisan precincts yet reported, Lynn J. Frazier today had 13,686 votes against 30,818 for O'Connor, his Democratic opponent for the U. S. senate. Non-partisan leaders claimed Frazier's election by 10,000 majority. Nestor, Republican candidate for governor, defeated Lemke, Independent.

Some idea of the wide difference in business connections of those applying for commissions as second lieutenants in the regular army is shown by the fact that 13 salesmen, 11 engineers, 3 each of newspaper men, chemists, accountants and managers; 4 each of civil service employees and machinists, 8 teachers, 2 each of auditors, examiners and students applied. There is also 1 application on file by a news photographer, bookkeeper, translator, secretary, conductor, automobile mechanic, buyer and a wrestling instructor.

A DEMOCRATIC SWEEP IN ILLINOIS

Overwhelming Vote for Beer and Bonds — Mayor Thompson Re-elected and Big Harding Plurality Wiped Out.

By Telegram to The Freeman: Chicago, Nov. 8.—Chicago and Cook voted sweepingly Democratic. Illinois voted 8 to 5 for light wines and beer; Chicago about 7 to 1 for beer.

The soldier's bonus won in Illinois by a 4 to 1 vote.

These were the outstanding features of the election in Illinois as shown by figures compiled today.

The Democratic victory in Chicago and Cook county was construed in some sources as a rebuke to "Thompsonism"—to the machine controlled by William Hale Thompson.

Mayor Thompson, however, in a statement issued today, announced that he was a candidate for re-election.

The defeat of County Judge Frank S. Reigelmeier was regarded as a hard blow to Thompson. Reigelmeier was the main target of the anti-Thompson workers.

One of the significant features of the local situation was the fact that the 430,000 plurality run up by Harding in Cook county in the last presidential election, was practically wiped out.

"UNDER TWO FLAGS" A REMARKABLE PRODUCTION

The motion picture, "Under Two Flags," now running at the Kingston Opera House is one of the most remarkable screen productions recently presented. The dramatization of the thrilling story is masterful. The scenic effects are unusual and remarkably beautiful. The acting of both the heroine, "Cigarette," and the hero, "Victor, the Carver," is amazingly artistic and equally thrilling. Today is the last of this presentation, "Under Two Flags."

Baron Avezzana

Baron Avezzana, former Italian minister to Washington, has been re-appointed to that post by the new Fascist premier, Mussolini, succeeding Ambassador Ricci, who resigned.

How big is a battery?

You may think of a battery as a forty-pound black box that starts your car and makes bright your path, or an eight-pound Exide that lights your motorcycle.

But to the men in the central power and lighting stations of many great cities, an Exide Battery is a huge thing, as big as an ordinary house, for each cell weighs as much as 3 tons, and there are 150 cells to a battery.

There is an Exide built for every purpose; for telephone systems, for farm lighting, for street trucks, for propelling submarines under the sea.

DAIRYMEN NAME MILK COMMITTEE

In accordance with action recently taken by the board of directors of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Inc., following the suggestion of Dr. R. S. Copeland, commissioner of health of New York city, President George W. Slocum has appointed a special committee to confer at regular intervals with the New York city board of health on matters pertaining to milk regulations. The committee consists of George R. Fitts of McLean, a member of the board of directors of the Cooperative Association, John Arfmann of Middletown, a former county president of the association, and R. E. Van Cise, production superintendent.

The committee will be glad to receive constructive suggestions from farmers in the territory where fluid milk for New York city consumption is produced. It will investigate all serious complaints of unfairness or injustice in the enforcement of the regulations before taking them up with the board of health. It is expected that this plan will help to smooth out differences of opinion wherever they may exist, secure better cooperation from farmers in observing the necessary sanitary regulations and result in the amendment or elimination of any regulations that may be found to be unfair or unnecessary.

At a recent farmers' meeting the health commissioner is quoted as saying: "If there is one among these 164 regulations that ought not to be there, you come and tell us so and give us a good reason and it will be taken out. We have exactly the same interest in the production of milk as you have."

The officers of the Cooperative Association believe that this new plan will result in more harmonious relations between dairymen and the board of health, promote efficiency in the observance of necessary regulations and be of ultimate benefit to both producer and consumer in improving New York city's milk supply.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Pretty Frock For Many Occasions.

3987. In the midst of many straight line dresses stands this attractive, bouffant model, with its quaint youthful waist and pleasing trimming. This is a good style for tulle, pongee, Canton crepe, crepe de chine and linen, also for batiste and organdy.

The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 6 1/2 yards of 32 inch material. The width at the foot is about 2 1/2 yards. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Average Height of Human Race.

The average present height of the human race is about 65 inches, but the average is produced by measuring both the races which are exceedingly tall and those which are exceedingly short. The so-called gigantic races, of which the Scotch of Galloway still stand at the head, are offset by the little peoples of central Africa.

Sure Enough.

"Vaudeville artists are gonna have a hard time this winter." "What now?" "Hooch and Hollywood jokes are barred."

I don't care who is running. For office, anywhere. And I decline to worry. Over long skirts for the fair. I may appear neglectful. But listen—bless your soul—I'm thinking of a furnace. And a dozen tons of coal.

I know the strikes have furnished An issue for our land. The Turkish situation Looks bad, I understand. But I don't fret about them. Not me, for, bless your soul I'm thinking of a furnace. And a dozen tons of coal.

It is no task to please a woman if you find out what she wants.

Collect and congregate—are synonymous, yet the church often finds that there is a vast disparity between the collection and the congregation.

Too Late.

Waiter observing diner's dissatisfaction: "Aren't your eggs cooked long enough sir?" Diner: "Yes, but not soon enough."

Just Begun To Fight.

Sam unfortunately had picked out an unusually combative helpmeet. After three days of married life he returned to his job looking somewhat wilted and woebegone. His employer, knowing the circumstances, sought to joke with him. "Sam," he said seriously, "You look as if you'd been in a battle." "Yes," he said, "but I haven't begun to fight yet."

Did you ever see a man who got to the top of the ladder by being a grouch? Neither did we.

We have often noticed that people who write anonymous letters never know how to spell.

A flapper cannot help it if she is good looking, and you can rest assured she will not try to.

Grammar.

There was a young lady from Kent Whose grammar was terribly bent, She said to her fiancé: "I'm so glad you have come, But I'll miss you so much when you've went."

One of the boys was watching a colored gentleman work and he was certainly making the dirt fly. He asked him how it was he worked so fast and so well.

Bastus kept right on working and replied, "Ye see, Mr. Boss, ah, just sticks de match ob enthusiasm to de fuse ob energy an' ah just naturally explodes, ah does."

We wonder sometimes whether certain civic improvements are like a certain Iowa town—merely Council Bluffs.

METROPOLITAN ORCHESTRA HERE AGAIN THURSDAY

The Metropolitan orchestra of Newburgh, which gave a concert at the Columbia shop on Fair street last Thursday evening and later in the evening played for the dance at Clermont Hall under the management of Morris Muniz, on Thursday evening of this week, at 7:30, will give a concert in the Columbia shop, on Fair street, and at 8 o'clock will play for the dance to be held at Clermont Hall. There will be a competition between the different buses as Mr. Muniz has offered three prizes. The buses carrying the most number of people to the dance, the first prize will be $5.00, the second $3.00, and the third $2.00. The prizes will be awarded at 10:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend the concert and the dance.

All Due to the Women.

In a lecture before the Royal Institute, Prof. Arthur Keith, an eminent biologist, gave the credit for American success to the women who came over with the Pilgrim fathers. The fact that these Englishmen brought their wives with them is responsible for the remarkably sturdy condition of the American people; whereas the Spaniards who went into Central and South America left their wives behind, and the result is a hybrid race which is not the equal of the original Iberian.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

The evenness of performance so often remarked in Dodge Brothers Motor Cars is due, in no small part, to the thoroughness with which each unit is inspected during the process of manufacture and assembly.

A trained staff of 800 experts is employed in this work alone, and approximately 5285 individual inspections are made on each car.

So exacting and rigid are the standards applied to these inspections that the slightest variation either in workmanship or material is instantly discovered and rejected.

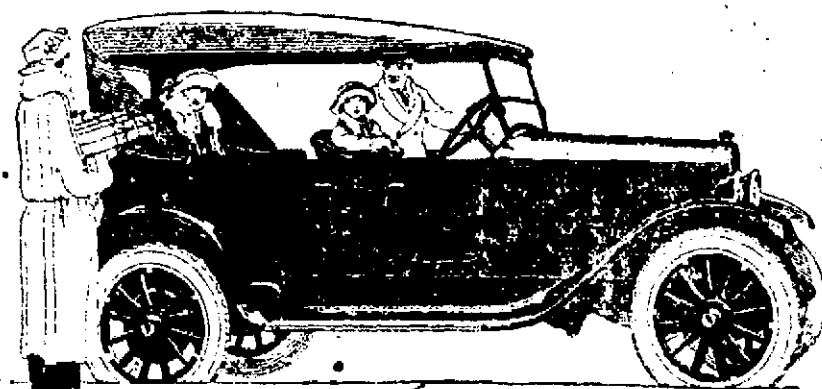

Dodge Brothers are almost over-scrupulous in their constant aim to make each car as sound and perfect as is humanly possible.

Michigan Republicans Carry Rest of Ticket, Re-electing Governor Grosbeck.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Detroit, Nov. 8.—Woodbridge N. Ferris, Democrat, twice governor of Michigan, has defeated Senator Charles E. Townsend, Republican, in the Michigan senatorial contest, by a margin estimated at between 10,000 and 15,000, according to figures available early today. A virtual Democratic landslide in Detroit and Wayne county, enabled Ferris to overcome a Townsend out-state lead and pile up what apparently is a safe lead.

The few remaining precincts yet to be heard from cannot possibly change the result, Democratic headquarters claimed this morning.

Ferris also carried big centers of population like Genesee, Kent, Kalamazoo, Oakland, St. Clair, Calhoun, Ingham, Ionia and Marquette counties.

With 2,061 precincts out of 2,908 in the state heard from, Ferris had 202,656 votes, and Townsend 193,537, giving the Democratic candidate a lead of 9,119.

In Wayne county, 587 out of 659 precincts, gave Ferris 64,205 and Townsend 44,795, showing Ferris 19,410. This indicates Ferris' plurality in Wayne will exceed 22,000.

The Republicans appear to have carried the rest of their ticket with one exception, re-electing Governor Alex J. Grosbeck and winning all but one congressional district.

HOME BUREAU
TALKS FINANCES

Three District Meetings Will Try To Work Out Permanent Way Of Remedying Aggravating Financial Situation.

Beginning today three district meetings of the Ulster County Home Bureau are to be held in the county to take up the question of finances which is an essential matter at this time. The meetings are to supplement the Advisory Council meeting held in Kingston last spring at which only the program for the year was taken up.

The meetings scheduled for the three days are as follows:
Wednesday, November 8—At Wawarsing. The communities meeting at Wawarsing are Sundown, Montela, Lackawack, Wawarsing, Ellenville, Kerhonkson, Stone Ridge, High Falls, Allgerville, Accord, Mettacaubons.

Thursday, November 9—At Modena. This will be the meeting place for the community organizations of New Hurley, Gardiner, New Paltz, Modena, Shawangunk, Clintondale, Plattekill.

Friday, November 10—At Kingston. The communities attending this meeting will be Rosendale, Bloomington, Asbury, Saugerties, Mount Marion West Hurley, Brodhead, Hurley, Milton.

For five years the Ulster County Home Bureau has struggled against heavy odds, but during all of that time has increased its membership until Ulster leads all other counties of the state in its membership.

The November issue of the Ulster County Farm and Home Bureau News pointed out six counties of the state are beginning work on organization this year, but that rapid growth is not necessarily an indication that the Home Bureau is a permanent organization where organized because American people love to try something new and are great joiners. "It is not difficult too get a large initial membership in any organization. The test of the value of an organization comes a few years later when its continuance must depend on the results it is getting.

"Back of a strong community program must be a right understanding of what membership in the Bureau involves. Women who join the Bureau today no longer join to get a dollar's worth out of it, or in the hope of getting two dollars' worth in return for the investment of one dollar. Membership in the Home Bureau in these days is an endorsement of the organization. Its members who have paid their dollar are the working group in the county, whose purpose and definite aim it is to see that the service of the Bureau reaches every home in the county and to contribute time, physical strength and most of all, constructive suggestions to make the service meet the needs."

So far as continued growth is concerned year after year, the women of the Ulster County Home Bureau feel that the Bureau is firmly established in Ulster county. One matter which will be discussed at the three district meetings is to do away with community entertainments. At times it is very hard to hold an entertainment in the community because of so many other events. Therefore, the group meetings will be held in order to work out with the members a permanent way of remedying the financial situation.

SHANDAKEN.

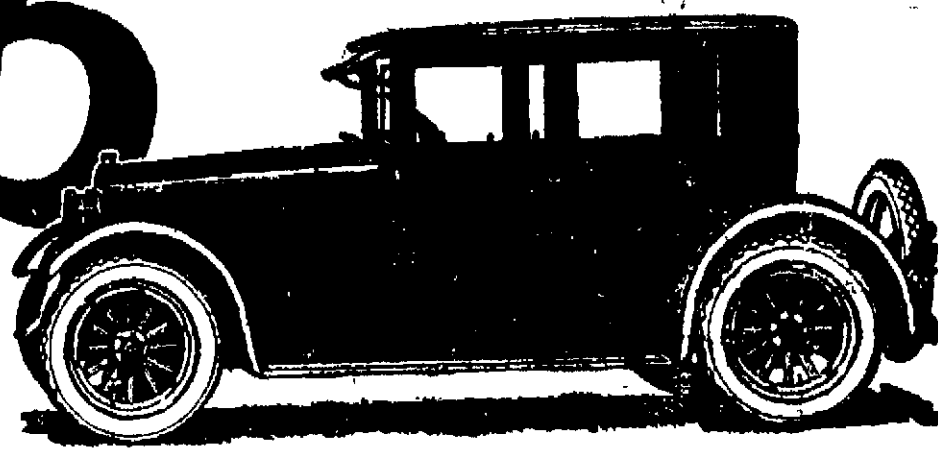

Shandaken, Nov. 7.—The entertainment given by the Christian Endeavor Society on November 2 in the M. E. Church was a success. The net proceeds was sixteen dollars.

The Ladies Aid held their monthly business meeting at the church hall on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mrs. Jay Humphrey served the company with a very nice luncheon.

A Sunday school board meeting will be held in the M. E. Church in connection with the prayer meeting on Friday evening.

Services in the M. E. Church next Sunday. Sunday school at ten o'clock. Preaching at eleven o'clock and Christian Endeavor in the evening at seven thirty.

Orville Winchell, who has resided here for several years, expects to move to Kingston in the near future.

MAN AND THREE CHILDREN
HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Coxsackie, Nov. 8.—Fred Mahler of New Baltimore station, and three of his children were injured about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening between Cossackie and New Baltimore when the automobile in which they were riding and another driven by Minor Brown of Schenectady, collided. Mr. Brown was unhurt. Both cars were damaged in the head-on smash. Raymond, eleven year old son of Mr. Mahler, had his skull fractured when thrown against the dashboard, an X-ray examination performed by Dr. J. E. Van Hoesen, he said, showed. Other injuries included a cut nose and a broken rib. George Mahler was cut about the face. Mattida Mahler, sixteen-years old, was shaken up and bruised. Sergeant James J. Cunningham and Trooper A. L. Dutcher are investigating the accident.

these thousands?

THOUSANDS of people keep on trying, year after year, to build health from food that has been robbed of certain elements required for perfect nutrition.

If your food doesn't contain the mineral properties that go to build up nerve, tooth and bone structure, there is no other means by which you can get these vital elements.

This is one reason why so many well-informed people eat Grape-Nuts

MINE VICTIMS' FUNERALS TODAY

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 8.—With the exception of the funerals of the victims, most of which will be held today and the coroner's inquest and official investigation to come, the tragedy of the Reilly coal mine on the outskirts of this town, has come to a close. Eighty bodies have been found, 75 identified and 22 survivors are in the Spangler hospital. The International News Service correspondent was advised today that the mine has been thoroughly explored and there are no more bodies below. Rescuers have accounted for 112 men which tallies with the number of brass work checks issued on the morning of the disaster. Those in the hospital are reported doing well and no more deaths are likely.

Autograph Faker Probably Carefully Put Away That Particular Copy of Marlowe's Works.

Senator Lodge at a Boston dinner party said, apropos of an autograph collector who had bought a fake autograph of Marlowe, the Elizabethan dramatist: "That reminds me. There was once a New York man who collected books with autograph dedications. Most of these dedications were to himself. Open his Longfellow, his Kipling, his Bernard Shaw, or his Maupassant, and there would be his name in a flattering autograph dedication from Rudyard or Guy, from Henry or George. "Now, this man's friends had noticed, or thought they had noticed, a certain similarity about the handwriting of all these dedications. Probably they were wrong, but anyhow, after he had shown a fine folio volume of Marlowe to a festive gathering one evening, he found inscribed in the ancient book the next morning the following words: "To Bill—his name was William—From his faithful old friend and schoolmate, Kit Marlowe."

Adhering to Custom.

A mouse had the bad luck to fall into a can of beer while on a food hunt.

Presently a gray old cat came prowling along and picked up its ears at the sight of mousey's struggles.

"Sitth, Tom," gasped the victim of misfortune, "if thou'lt get me out of this ale can thou canst me!" To which burglar the cat agreed, and speedily effected a rescue. But as soon as he felt himself on firm ground the mouse made a bolt for it and disappeared down a hole.

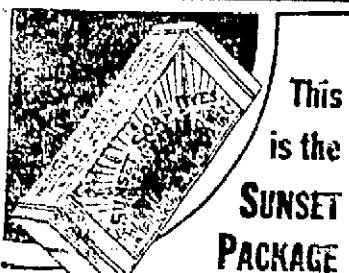

The cat went to the mouth of the hole and remarked angrily: "That's none of thy business! Ah, got the ale, I could eat that."

To which the mouse, keeping well out of danger, replied: "Ay, Tom, Ah did, but thou knowest I'll say out when they're in drink!" London Tit-Bits.

Treat for the Diners.

The woman enjoyed the antics of a seven-year-old boy, her fellow boarder, more perhaps than his mother did, for it took some strength to administer law and order to small but active John. One day as the boarders slipped from shore or tennis court for dinner they found John exercising his much-coveted privilege of ringing the dinner bell.

"The cream for dessert, ice cream for dessert," he chanted, as he sang. "I know what kind, too," he went on, "but I won't tell anyone." As he caught the woman's smile, he added: "All right, I'll tell you if you won't never, never tell," and in a stage whisper he divulged the secret: "It's caramel."

JEWS TO FINE LAX FARMERS

Under the sub-caption, "Auto-Suggestion in Farming," the Jewish Farmer for November says: "A most unique manifestation of successful community work is afforded by the decision of the Jewish Farmers of Stevensville. The decision, adopted at the last meeting, was to the effect that any member failing in any way to come up to the adopted standards of farming must pay a fine to the community chest. L. Reiner, special agent in Ulster and Sullivan counties, who, by the way, is to act as magistrate, relates the incident with genuine satisfaction, as he has had something to do with the development of the interest in farming so effectually displayed.

Farmers in other communities have been attending demonstrations arranged by Mr. Reiner on farms where project work has been carried on under his supervision. On one farm where certified potato seed was planted for purposes of comparison, beside a field where common seed was used, Mr. Reiner was able to show an increased yield of 50 bushels to the acre from the certified seed. In addition to a greater percentage of marketable tubers. On another farm he demonstrated the superior results obtained in the raising of potatoes in accordance with the most approved methods, and on still another, the advantage of spraying potatoes to control diseases and insect pests. The increase in yield and the superior quality of the crop resulting from this practice by far offset the additional cost of labor and material."

SKYSCRAPER BUILT ON STILTS

New York Architects Are Putting Up Big Structure With Seemingly Slender Supports.

A great, complicated skyscraper is being built in New York under unusual conditions, directly above the railroad tracks of a busy terminal. The tracks running beneath its walls in some places are double-decked, so that trains pass on two levels through the basement of the building. The entire structure rests upon slender stilts, extending between the tracks down to bedrock. A unique method has been found for isolating these uprights so that the constant rumbling of heavy trains on both levels causes not the slightest vibration in the building above.

This construction, including the digging for the foundation and the erection of the building, is being carried on without affecting the movement of trains beneath. The entire weight of the skyscraper rests upon the supports rising between the tracks, which are spaced in the usual way. Although capable of supporting 20 or more stories, these stilts seem surprisingly slender. Both track levels beneath the building are remarkably free from obstructions, so that engineers have a clear view of other tracks in either side.

It was at first believed that only structures of six or eight stories could be safely supported on such foundations. A series of tests, including the measurements of vibration caused by the passing of trains, proved that buildings could safely be raised to 20 stories on these supports. Excavations for foundations have been carried down until the beams rest upon solid rock. The whole operation has been carried on without upsetting train schedules.

Each column supporting the building is completely isolated. It is not enough to keep it from touching the foundations on which the tracks lie. It also must be protected by vibration mats from the rock on which it rests, so that vibrations from passing trains will not affect it.

Why Some Husbands Go Insane.

A man went home the other evening and found his house locked up. After a deal of trouble he climbed in the window and found on the table a note from his wife. "I have gone to the movies," it read, "and you'll find the key on the side of the doorstep."

Proud of Her "Feverers."

Little Maude very much admired her papa's chickens. Observing for the first time the little hairs on her arms, she ran very excitedly to her mamma, saying: "See! Mamma, see! I got some feverers. I got some feverers."

Bullfrog Stuck to Machine.

A big bullfrog, although uninvited, took a ride in an airplane in the Philippines, and the pilot was unable to spill him out into the atmosphere even though he performed all the stunts of an aerial circus.

TRAVER APPOINTS CLEON B. MURRAY

Well Known Ellenville Attorney Becomes Assistant District Attorney, Succeeding Frank W. Brooks of Kingston.

District Attorney Frederick G. Traver today filed the appointment of Cleon B. Murray of Ellenville as assistant district attorney to succeed Frank W. Brooks, who resigned several days ago.

Mr. Murray is a native of Kingston and is a son of Dayton Murray, secretary of the Rondout Savings Bank. He was born in the Ponckhockie section of this city thirty-two years ago, and was educated in the city schools and at Kingston Academy. After his graduation from Kingston Academy, Mr. Murray studied law at the School of Law of Cornell University at Ithaca, from which he was graduated.

On his admission to the bar, Mr. Murray became associated with District Attorney Traver in the practice of the law under the firm name of Traver & Murray, and their partnership continued for two years.

Mr. Murray has been active in the Republican party in the town of Wawarsing since he has resided there and has served as police justice of the town of Wawarsing and as village attorney of the village of Ellenville. He enjoys the confidence of a large circle of friends throughout the county as well as in the town of Wawarsing.

During the past few years, Mr. Murray has tried a number of notable cases in the Supreme court in this city and in the other counties of this district and elsewhere. Mr. Murray is married and resides at Knoll Acres, Ellenville.

ALBANY YOUTH
OWNS TO MURDER

Says He Shot Mike Guerrieri Near Catskill and Own Father Four Years Ago—His Mother to Be Held.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Catskill, N. Y., Nov. 8—Lester Gerstenberg, 18, of Albany, has confessed to two murders, according to District Attorney H. M. Curtis, of Coxsack.

Berstenberg, the district attorney says, has admitted that he killed "Mike" Guerrieri of Albany, whose body was found in the woods near here last Sunday night and that he killed his father, Emil Gerstenberg, four years ago.

District Attorney Curtis also announced that Mrs. Gerstenberg would be held in connection with the two alleged murders. In his confession the authorities say, young Gerstenberg implicated his mother in both alleged murders.

Guerrieri had been a boarder at the Gerstenberg home in Albany for two years. Last Sunday Guerrieri and Gerstenberg came here to hunt. Subsequently Guerrieri's body was found in the woods with the head partly blown off by gunshot.

MEMORY THAT IS MARVELOUS

Authentic Feats of Blind Musicians Are Among the Most Remarkable on Record.

Remarkable feats of quick memorizing by blind musicians have been recorded by the National Institute for the Blind.

Fred Turner, one of the most accomplished blind musicians in Scotland, recently memorized all of Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" and in four months trained his choir and accompanied the entire work on the organ, while Sinclair Logan, the blind composer and organist, memorized Somervell's "The Passion of Christ," a fairly complicated cantata occupying 75 minutes in performance—trained his choir and accompanied a highly successful performance in less than two months, during which he was working under the stress of other heavy memorization work for an important recital in Liverpool for the National Institute for the Blind, in addition to his normal professional duties.

To carry in the memory Beethoven's 32 pianoforte sonatas, as William Wolstenholme does, and the entire 48 preludes and fugues of Bach, as in the case of H. V. Spenser—two blind musicians resident in London, would seem no light achievement and yet these form but a small portion of the range of works in the mental storehouse of these men.—Westminster Gazette.

BORKER STUNNED AS HE HIT TREE

Linderman Avenue Man Injured When His Horse Became Frightened At An Engine And Man Aways—Hurled Out of Wagon Against A Tree.

Waldo R. Borker of Linderman Avenue Extension was stunned when hurled out of his wagon against a tree at Millard's foundry this morning, and was taken to the Kingston City Hospital by Officer Hess who was called to the scene when police headquarters received an emergency call.

According to Mr. Borker he was driving a horse and wagon down Broadway and at the West Shore railroad crossing the horse became frightened at an engine and started to run away. Borker managed to turn the animal into that street and then he was hurled out of the wagon, hitting a tree at the curb and lay in the road badly stunned.

The horse broke loose from the wagon but was caught before he had gone far.

Borker's injuries are not serious.

LIVES OF UNREMITTING TOIL

Chinese Coolies Never Know Respite From Labor of Pushing Barrows, for Bare Existence.

Laborers in America who think they have a hard life should get these Chinese coolies. Imagine wheeling a barrow with a four or five hundred pound load for hundreds of miles over roads difficult to travel even on horseback!

Usually there are two men to a barrow. The one at the handles, by means of a strap over his shoulder, takes much of the weight from his arms, leaving his hands more or less free to guide and balance the load; the one in front drags it forward with a ten-foot rope.

Panting and straining, with the sweat streaming from their half-naked bodies; pulling through foot deep yellow dust, lifting over rocks and dragging up hills, at night gulping a bowl of soup or macaroni and, half dead with fatigue, falling asleep on the ground in the inn courtyard among the pigs, chickens and mules—so they live, day after day, year in and year out, with nothing else to look forward to.

All this for fifty or sixty coppers a day, or about eighteen cents in American money. Is it any wonder they seek oblivion in opium?—Roy Chapman Andrews in Asia.

New Tertiary Crocodile

Exceedingly valuable additions have been made recently to the already extensive natural history collections of the La Plata museum in Buenos Aires, and a vast amount of new information has been gathered by an expedition that has just returned from a three-months' geological survey and paleontological study of northern Patagonia—that little-known region of Argentina that already has shown itself to be one of the world's richest storehouses of paleontological relics. Included among the specimens brought back by the expedition is the fossil of a prehistoric monster of the crocodile

Two Distinct Tribes in Damara Land

Two distinct tribes inhabit Damara land, in the central portion of what was formerly German Southwest Africa—the Hill Damara and the Cattle Damara. Although they share the same name, they are of different origin and speak different languages.

The Hill Damara are negroes with much Hottentot blood in their veins while the Cattle Damara, who live on the plains and raise cattle, are a Bantu-Negro people.

Damara is a Hottentot word meaning "Two Dama Women." The Damara

call themselves Ovaherero, "the Merry People."

School Gardens Popular in Hawaii

Some 49,000 school children in Hawaii are enrolled in garden work as one of the results of the efforts of the local agricultural experiment station of the United States Department of Agriculture co-operating with other territorial organizations to encourage diversified production and the local growing of table products. Compared with the beginning of the garden work in 1917, a much larger amount of vegetables is now grown in the home gardens of each community and a wide variety of fresh vegetables is found on the table of the average Hawaiian family.

VOLSTEAD AMONG THE DEFEATED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8.—Senator Frank B. Kellogg, Republican, and Congressman Andrew J. Volstead, Republican, and dry law author, on the basis of early morning figures, have been defeated in what promises to be one of the biggest political overthrows in Minnesota in the last decade.

In 364 precincts out of 3,479 in the state, Kellogg received 33,953; Shipstead, Farmer-Labor candidate, endorsed by the railroad brotherhoods, State Federation of Labor and Non-Partisan League, 42,336 and Mrs. Anna D. Olson, Democrat, a poor third.

Eighty-nine out of 373 precincts in the seventh district gave Volstead, Republican, 6,369 and Kvaloy, Independent, endorsed by the Democratic and Farmer-Labor parties, 5,818. Country precincts to be heard from are expected to increase Kvaloy's lead.

Congressman Oscar E. Koller, Republican, who brought an impeachment proceeding against Attorney General Coughlin and was repudiated by the state Republican organization, is elected in the fourth district. St. Paul, by a big majority over Paul Dwyer, Democrat. Dwyer was endorsed by the Farmer-Labor party.

SIXTH WARDERS LOCKED FIGURES

Evidently Members of Election Board in First District of That Ward Forgot to Read Instructions—Returns Safely Under Lock and Key.

The board of elections and City Clerk Doremus waited until 2 o'clock this afternoon for the members of the election board of the first district of the Sixth Ward to file the election returns as required by law. The Freeman was very anxious to obtain the official figures for tonight's issue, and called up the city clerk asking the reason for the delay.

This afternoon City Clerk Doremus got in touch with Miss Ida Millon, chairman of the board in that district, to ascertain why the reports had not been filed and learned that the tally sheets and returns had been locked up in the ballot box which had been delivered at the city hall early this morning.

It is understood that the only way the box can be opened before the returns are tabulated by the aldermen, acting as a board of canvassers, is to call the board of elections together and have the box opened in their presence.

It is very evident that neither the chairman of the election board of the Sixth Ward or the other members of the board had read the letter of instructions sent to all polling places in Kingston and Ulster county regarding the matter of filing returns. As a result of the official returns being under lock and key the figures printed in The Freeman are unofficial.

SUSIE PAID HER ELECTION BET

By Wheeling Mrs. Van Valkenburg Around the Block in a Wheelbarrow This Noon Much to the Amusement of Those Who Saw It.

Miss Susie Longendyke and Mrs. Van Valkenburg are both employed at the Kingston Dress Manufacturing Company at the corner of Mill street and Hasbrouck avenue, and during the days preceding election there was considerable discussion among the girls as to whether Miller or Smith would be elected.

Finally after considerable talk Miss Longendyke and Mrs. Van Valkenburg decided to bet on the result of the election, the winner to enjoy a wheelbarrow ride through the downtown business section at the expense of the loser.

This noon time, greatly to the amusement of those on the street, Miss Longendyke paid the bet by wheeling Mrs. Van Valkenburg around the block in a wheelbarrow. It is needless to add that Miss Longendyke had placed her bet on Miller and Mrs. Van Valkenburg on Smith.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Nov. 8.—The stock market opened fractionally lower today with dealings on a small scale.

Many of the active issues recovered these losses however, shortly after the start. Steel Common started 1/4¢ lower at 106 1/4 and then rallied to 106 1/2.

Baldwin, after dropping 1/4 to 130 1/4, rose to 131. Studebaker improved fractionally to 127 1/4.

Alfred Chemical fell nearly 2 points to 76 1/4 and Famous Players 1 1/4 to 73 1/4. There was little doing in the rails.

Many issues rose sharply in the late forenoon. Steel Common rose to above 107; Woolworth gained over 7 points to 212; Consolidated Gas rose 4 points to 141 1/4; Reading rose over 1 point to 83.

Demand for some issues continued in the afternoon but a wavering tendency was exhibited by other shares. Steel Common rose 1 point to 107 1/4. Studebaker advanced to 129. American Can rose 2 points to 75 1/4.

The market closed strong; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds strong.

ALBANY OPPOSES LOCALS TONIGHT

Bill Heppinstal's Albany Senators will be the attraction at the armory this evening, opposing the local representatives in the New York State Basketball circuit. Much interest on the part of local fandom has been expressed as to the result of tonight's game. Kingston defeated Albany on the latter's court this season by a 24 to 22 score, a very good game. Albany has Sedran and Friedman and the Morgenweck ball bouncers on their home court and this contest also should prove close.

Both Albany and the local quintet are looking forward to winning this contest, as it will be of momentous importance in the league race for the first half season. The game is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock. The referee has not been announced, but as there are yet only two official referees it will be either Meehan or Davey. The usual dancing, music furnished by Dalt's orchestra, will follow the game.

STUYVESANT HIGH HAS BEST TEAM IN YEARS

Stuyvesant High School of New York city, whose team will meet the local football team in this city on November 25th, defeated the Dewitt Clinton High School team for the first time in six years on Tuesday afternoon of this week by the score of 14-0. This victory for the Stuyvesant football team clinches the Public School Athletic League Championship of Manhattan for them and is the first time in many years that they have had this honor. During the first half the team was put on the defensive by Dewitt Clinton practically all the time but in the second half they came back with a rush and scored two touchdowns, the first resulting from a series of line bucks and the second from a well developed forward passing game.

QUANTICO MARINES RISE IN FOOTBALL

(By Davis J. Walsh.)

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 8.—It is altogether possible that the more or less distant future will see a third service team rise in the east to take issue with West Point and Annapolis in football, forming a triple entente modelled along the lines of the Big Three.

The foundation of the plan was laid down in Washington a week or so ago when the Quantico marines took a rolling fall out of Georgetown University, until that disillusioned moment regarded as one of the best teams east of the Mississippi. The present Quantico marines are the missionaries of the movement, which it is hoped will result in the marine training school for officers at Quantico, Va., assuming a status in relation to the army and navy games as does Princeton to Harvard and Yale.

In a scholastic sense, the institution has requirements that are said to be just as strict as those prevailing at West Point and Annapolis. In the matter of athletic eligibility, the code, no doubt is a bit more elastic. It hasn't been necessary to draw the eligibility line very tight for the simple reason that the marines have been unable to get on the schedules of college teams.

The Quantico game was to be a romp, in Georgetown's estimation, but it was beaten in that game and was softened up to such an extent that Holycross repeated the performance on the following Saturday. Just like the army and navy, the marines have a training table, and regular hours for drill, classrooms and football. Everything, in fact but a place on college football schedules. That, they hope, will come with the passing years.

BAKE RUTH TO PUT IN WINTER ON FARM

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 8.—Babe Ruth, former champion home run hitter of baseball, said today that he expects to start soon for his farm in Massachusetts where he expects to put in the winter months, getting into condition for the 1923 season. Ruth returned to New York yesterday from his barnstorming trip with Bob Meusel, another member of New York Yanks. According to his own figures, Ruth got twenty one home runs and Meusel eleven in twenty one games.

NO TIME LIMIT FOR VATICAN

Its Statemen Seemingly Take Little Thought for the Inevitable Passing of the Years.

Time is not measured by the Vatican according to our accepted forms. While we think in days usually, in months not always, in years very seldom, and in generations nearly never, the Vatican thinks in centuries ordinarily, in generations fairly often, in years only under the pressure of unusual circumstances, in shorter periods never.

It is this difference in the measurement of time which makes the Vatican such a difficult subject for the secular political investigator. There is no time limit, in the usually accepted sense, for the Vatican's political thought. At least it is not limited by a lifetime.

The cardinal who at the time of writing is at the head of the Vatican's foreign office—secretaria di stato—is a very old man, who for 30 years has been connected with political affairs. But he continues to look ahead into the centuries.

He, I believe, is the only statesman in Europe who can and who does coolly discuss the possibility of Russian Bolshevism, under some form or another, enduring for 50 years yet.

What are 50 years for the Vatican? Imagine any other European statesman, anxious for the success of his butterfly career, talking in this cool way about Moscow.—Vladimir Pollakoff in the London Daily Telegraph.

Potato Ancestors.
Thirteen thousand feet above sea level in the mountains of northern Ecuador, the region which is believed by scientists to be the cradle of the potato race, there has been found a wild species of this plant. The discoveries were made by Wilson Popehoe of the bureau of plant industry, Department of Agriculture.

Our own large, developed potatoes would be just as proud of these mountain Murphys as Mr. Bryan is of the anthropoid apes; for the Andean variety from which our own has sprung is too small to be of economic importance. Plant breeders in this country, however, hope that tests may show characteristics which will make it worth while to combine them with our cultivated kinds by crossing. The wild tubers produce seed rather freely, but also are subject to one of the potato diseases of which their cultured brothers are often victims.
